WHY FRENCH?

1 A Business Language.

French is the 3rd language in international business and 2nd in Europe. As the world's fifth biggest economy and a leading destination for foreign investment, France is a key economic partner. French is also the 2nd most useful language in trade for UK firms. (Source: British Council)

2 French Economic Presence In India.

France is among the very first G20 investors in India. 600 French companies are established in India represented by 1000 entities which account for 37 of CAC 40 groups. They spread throughout the territory (Maharashtra 30%, Delhi 27%, Karnataka 15%, Tamil Nadu 11%). France is the 2nd largest European employer in India (behind the United Kingdom), with over 350,000 employees.

France is a popular destination for international investors.

- 7th world economy (for the benefit of India)
- 2nd market in the euro zone (after Germany)
- 3rd European destination for Foreign Direct Investments
- 1st European destination for industrial projects since 15 years

Indian investments in France

- 150 Indian companies in France, employing around 7000 people
- 19 new Indian investments in France in 2017 (+73% compared to 2016) - creation of 284 jobs
- 42% of decision centers
- 32 % of manufacturing activities

3 Professional Opportunities.

As one of the main languages of business and international relations, French opens new opportunities for employment with French and international companies in India, 32 countries where French is an official language, or abroad. French is the 2nd most widely learned foreign language after English.

4 Global Perspectives.

With over 270 million speakers around the world, French is the 5th most spoken language worldwide and the only language, alongside English, which is spoken in all continents. Thus, knowing French fosters regional and international connections. Besides being spoken in Europe, the Americas, the Caribbean, and Africa, French is an official language of the United Nations, the European Union, and major international organizations like the International Red Cross, the International Olympic Committee, and Doctors Without Borders. French is the language of the three cities where the EU institutions are headquartered: Strasbourg, Brussels and Luxembourg. The International Organization for Francophonie, an international organization of French-speaking countries, comprises 88 member states and governments.

5 A Language For Travel.

France is the world's top tourist destination and attracts 90 million visitors a year. The ability to speak French is useful when travelling to Canada, Switzerland, many countries in Africa, Monaco, and many other places.

ABOUT ALLIANCE FRANÇAISE, PANJIM

The Alliance Française was founded in Paris in 1883 with the mission to promote French language and culture around the world. Today, the non-profit cultural organization now features 834 branches in 132 countries.

Founded in 2007, Alliance Française, Panjim is dedicated to fostering an intercultural dialogue and amicable relations between France and Goa. Located in the neighborhood of Altinho, one of the prime locations in Panjim, AFP is now Goa's leading French language and cultural center, annually training hundreds of students of all ages at all levels of French. In part of its vision to introduce French and the opportunities that it provides, AFP is partnering with schools, universities and companies across Goa. Complementing its linguistic curriculum, AFP organizes cultural events open to the general public throughout the year, including shows, screenings, conferences and more.
